

8'th Grade Summer Reading Assignment

Read the novel A Day No Pigs Would Die by Robert Newton Peck.

Students should do a journal entry for each chapter in which they summarize the chapter and ask any questions they may have concerning the chapter including vocabulary. Each journal entry should be at least half a page long and written in paragraph form. Each journal entry should be labeled with a chapter number and should start on a new piece of paper or page of the notebook. The journal is due the first day of school and will be graded as a quiz grade.

The class will discuss the novel for the first week of school and then take a test over it.